Employee will record time and attendance on AD-2002, "Time and Attendance Record," or an approved agency format, and forward it bi-weekly to their timekeeper. 14. The Government will not be liable for damages to an Employee's personal or real property during the course of performance of official duties or while using Government equipment in the employee's residence, except to the extent the Government is held liable by the Federal Tort Claims Act claims or claims arising under the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees Claims Act.

By participating in the Telecommuting program, the employee does not relinquish any entitlement to reimbursement for authorized expenses incurred while conducting business for the Government, as provided for by statute and implementing regulations.
16. Employee is covered under Federal Employee's Compensation Act if injured in the course of actually performing official duties at the official duty station or the alternative worksite. Any accident or injury occurring at the alternative worksite must be reported immediately to the supervisor. Subsequently, the supervisor must investigate immediately and take appropriate action.
17. Employee will meet with the supervisor to receive assignments and to review completed work as requested.
18. Employee agrees to complete all assigned work according to guidelines and standards in the employee performance plan. The employee agrees to provide regular reports if required by the supervisor to help judge performance. 22. Employee agrees to limit his/her performance of his/her officially assigned duties to his/her official duty station or to agency approved alternative worksite. Failure to comply with this provision may result in loss of pay, termination of the telecommuting arrangement, and/or other appropriate disciplinary action.
