Part 310, and Section 521 of the GLB Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6821. These documents contain material information upon which the Commission has relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Order. If, upon motion by the Commission, this Court finds that Defendant Silverman has failed to disclose any material asset or materially misstated the value of any asset in the financial documents described above, or has made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial documents described above, the Court shall execute the Order attached as Appendix A imposing the full suspended monetary judgment and executing the full disgorgement order set forth in Subsection A above against Defendant Silverman, make an express determination that there is no just reason for delay in the entry of the judgment, and provide that the judgment shall be immediately due and payable. Interest on the judgment executed in Appendix A shall be computed at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1969, as amended, which shall be due from the date of entry of this Order, and Plaintiff shall be permitted to execute upon the judgment immediately and engage in discovery in aid of execution.

- D. The Commission's agreement to this Order with Relief Defendant is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the sworn financial statements and supporting documents dated June 2, 2004, provided to the Commission by Relief Defendant, the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of which was attested to by the Relief Defendant on that date. These documents contain material information upon which the Commission has relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Order. If, upon motion by the Commission, this Court finds that the Relief Defendant has failed to disclose any material asset or materially misstated the value of any asset in the financial documents described above, or has made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial documents described above, the Court shall execute the Order attached as Appendix B imposing the full suspended monetary judgment set forth in Subsection B above against the Relief Defendant, make an express determination that there is no just reason for delay in the entry of the judgment, and provide that the judgment shall be immediately due and payable. Interest on the judgment executed in Appendix B shall be computed at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1969, as amended, which shall be due from the date of entry of this Order, and Plaintiff shall be permitted to execute upon the judgment immediately and engage in discovery in aid of execution.

- E. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant and Relief Defendant are hereby required, unless they have done so already, to furnish to the Commission their respective taxpayer identifying numbers (social security numbers and employer identification numbers) which shall be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of Defendant and Relief Defendant's relationship with the government.
- F. Defendant Silverman is further required, unless he has done so already, to provide the Commission with clear, legible and full-size photocopies of all valid driver's licenses that he possesses, which will be used for reporting and compliance purposes.
- G. Defendant and Relief Defendant agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true in any subsequent litigation filed by the Commission to enforce its rights pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a non-dischargeability complaint filed in any bankruptcy proceeding.
- H. Proceedings instituted under this Paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

I. The non-suspended judgment set forth herein may be used by the FTC and the Receiver for the purpose of taking all necessary or appropriate post-judgment collection steps, including but not limited to obtaining and levying writs of execution and creating, perfecting, and enforcing judgment liens on any real or personal property of Defendant and Relief Defendant. The Clerk of the Court is hereby directed to accept this Stipulated Order for Permanent Injunction and Monetary Judgment and the non-suspended judgment set forth herein for the purpose of issuing writs of execution, abstracts of judgment and any other post-judgment process at the request of the FTC or the Receiver.

VI. COMMISSION'S USE OF MONETARY JUDGMENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all funds paid to the Commission or its agent pursuant to Paragraph V of this Order, may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including but not limited to consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or that funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant and Relief Defendant's practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant and Relief Defendant shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Paragraph.
