Population on December 31, 2006

← 1. Include only adult parolees conditionally released to parole supervision, whether by parole board decision or by mandatory conditional release.

← 2. Individuals entering parole more than once during the year should be counted each time (e.g., entered, discharged, and re-entered should be counted as two entries. Individuals who enter parole and, without being discharged, are placed on parole for a second offense, should be counted as one entry).

a. Discretionary releases are persons who entered parole as a result of a parole board decision, Governor's pardon, or commutation of sentence.

b. Mandatory releases are persons who entered parole as a result of a determinate sentencing statute or good-time provision.

c. Reinstatements are persons returned to parole status, including discharged absconders whose cases were re-opened, and revocations with immediate reinstatement.

← 3. Individuals exiting parole more than once during the year should be counted each time.

a. Successful completions are parolees who served full-term sentences or who were released early due to a parole authority decision, commutation, or pardon.

b. 1. Parolees sent back to incarceration after receiving a sentence for a new offense.

2. Parolees sent back to incarceration after violating a condition of their parole but without receiving a new criminal sentence.

3. Parolees sent back to incarceration pending a revocation, trial, or sentencing.

c. Include discharged absconders who had failed to report and could not be located.

d. Include parolees transferred to another agency if they are no longer in your record system.

f. Specify type of discharge within the categories of successful, unsuccessful, and other.

1. Other successful discharges are those whose sentence was not completed.

2. Other unsuccessful discharges are those other than absconder or returned to incarceration (e.g., revocation with immediate reinstatement).

← 4. The count of adult parolees at yearend 2006. This figure should equal the population on January 1, plus the total entering parole in 2006, minus the total discharged from parole in 2006. (See cover page for persons to INCLUDE and EXCLUDE.)
