Pablo M. Zylberglait
Division of Enforcement
Bureau Of Consumer Protection
Federal Trade Commission

Pablo M. Zylberglait has served as an attorney at the Bureau of Consumer Protection's Division of Enforcement since January 1997. His duties include Internet advertising issues, enforcing FTC orders, and federal district court litigation related to deceptive advertising and marketing practices. He was involved in the 1998 revisions to the FTC's Guides for the Use of Environmental Marketing Claims and has participated in industry and consumer outreach on those guides.

Prior to joining the FTC, Mr. Zylberglait was an associate at the Los Angeles law firm of Barger & Wolen, where he litigated in the areas of disability insurance, bankruptcy and personal injury. He received his law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center, and his undergraduate degree from the California State University at Northridge.
