The Kyoto Protocol will enter into force internationally on February 16th without the participation of the United States or Australia. Senator James M. Inhofe, State Department Senior Climate Negotiator Harlan L. Watson, and other experts will discuss the prospects for implementing the Kyoto Protocol, what new international agreements and efforts may follow Kyoto, what this means for future U. S. climate policies and international involvement, and where we should be going on climate policies.

Panelists include:

- Senator James M. Inhofe (R- Oklahoma), Chairman of the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee
- Dr. Harlan L. Watson, Senior Climate Negotiator and Special Representative at the U.S. Department of State
- William O'Keefe, CEO of the George C. Marshall Institute
