Docket No. 9298

JOINT MOTION TO ENTER REVISED SCHEDULING ORDER

Complaint counsel and Respondents hereby jointly move the Court to modify the Scheduling Order in this case. Counsel for the parties have conferred and concur in the belief that the proposed revisions to the Scheduling Order are appropriate.

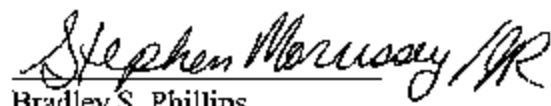

The purpose of the proposed revised Scheduling Order is to lengthen the periods of time devoted to preparation of complaint counsel's expert reports and expert discovery. To wit, the deadline for the submission of complaint counsel's expert report will be extended through November 14, 2001; the deadline for the submission of Respondents' expert report will be extended through November 30, 2001; and the deadline for the submission of complaint counsel's rebuttal report, if any, will be extended through December 12, 2001. The need for this extension is due to the need for complaint counsel to substitute an expert due to unforeseen circumstances, as outlined in the Motion for Extension to File Expert Report. The parties' proposed modifications will not affect the timing of the close of discovery, the deadlines for the submission of papers related to summary decision and the trial date will be unaffected by this modification.

Respectfully submitted,
