

“Remove Me” Surf Results

- 215 addresses from spams with “remove me” claims tested (e.g., click here to remove your address from future mailings)
- 135 removal links or addresses were dead or did not function.
- Attempts to send reply email messages were equally unsuccessful.
- 77 targeted for warning letters or email messages stating:
“False or deceptive representations, such as the removal representations in the email promoting your website, may violate section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.”
- “Remove Me” Surfers: Alaska State Troopers, Alberta Government Services, British Columbia Securities Commission, British Columbia Solicitor General, Commodities Futures Trading Commission, Federal Trade Commission, Idaho Attorney General, Montana Department of Administration, Oregon Department of Justice, Washington Attorney General, Washington State Department of Financial Institutions.