Kern, IV, engaged in deceptive business practices in violation of Section 5 of the FTC Act,

50

15 U.S.C. § 45, in connection with the sale of business opportunities and business development aids. The Defendants were served with copies of the Complaint in this matter on May 8, 2003.

The Commission and Defendants have agreed to entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order for Permanent Injunction ("Final Order") by the Court to resolve all matters in dispute in this action without trial. Pursuant to agreement and stipulation, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and over all parties hereto.
2. Venue in this district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), and 15 U.S.C. § 53(b).

4. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over all parties hereto.
5. This Order does not constitute and shall not be interpreted to constitute an admission by Defendants that they have engaged in violations of any law or regulations, including but not limited to the Federal Trade Commission Act.
6. This Order is remedial in nature and any payment made under the Order shall not be construed as the payment of a fine, penalty, punitive assessment, or forfeiture.
7. The acts and practices of Defendants were or are in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.
8. Entry of this order is in the public interest.

9. Defendants enter into this Order freely and without coercion, and acknowledge that they understand the provisions of this Order and are prepared to abide by them.

10. Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed that the entry of this Order resolves all matters of dispute between them arising from the Complaint in this action, up to the date of entry of this Order.

11. Defendants waive all rights to seek appellate review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. Defendants further waive and release any claim they may have against the Commission, its employees, representatives, or agents.

12. Defendants have agreed that this Order does not entitle them to seek or obtain attorneys' fees as a prevailing party under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, as amended by Pub. L. 104-121, 110 Stat. 847, 863-64 (1996), and Defendants further waive any rights to attorneys' fees that may arise under said provision of law.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of any business opportunity or business development aid, Defendants and any person or entity in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the Order by personal service or otherwise are hereby restrained and enjoined from making any express or implied representation or omission of material fact that is false or misleading, in any manner, orally or in writing, to any consumer, including, but not limited to, the following:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendants and any person or entity in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the Order by personal service or otherwise are hereby restrained and enjoined from engaging, participating or assisting in any manner or capacity whatsoever, directly, or in concert with others, individually or through any business entity or other device, in the sale, advertisement, promotion, marketing, offering, or provision of any chain marketing scheme.

III.

INJUNCTION AGAINST PROVIDING OTHERS WITH THE MEANS AND INSTRUMENTALITIES TO VIOLATE SECTION 5 OF THE FTC ACT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in connection with the offering for sale or sale of any business opportunity or business development aid, Defendants are hereby restrained and enjoined from providing to others the means and instrumentalities with which to make, expressly or by implication, orally or in writing, any false or misleading statement or representation of material fact, including, but not limited to the following:

- A. Any false or misleading representation that consumers who purchase certain products are likely to earn substantial income from those products; and
- B. Any false or misleading representation that all consumers who purchase certain products can earn a substantial income from those products.

IV.

MONITORING COMPLIANCE OF SALES PERSONNEL

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in connection with the offering for sale or sale of any business opportunity or business development aid, Defendants are permanently enjoined and restrained from:

- A. Failing to take reasonable steps sufficient to monitor and ensure that all of Defendants' sales personnel, including agents, representatives, employees, or independent contractors, comply with Paragraphs I, II, and III of this Order. Reasonable steps shall include, at a minimum, establishing and maintaining a compliance program which includes spot, blind testing of the oral representations made by any representative or independent contractor; spot checking of consumers to ensure that no misrepresentations were made; and ascertaining the number and nature of any consumer complaints concerning any marketing material used by Defendants or the failure of any product sold by Defendants to meet any representation made in any marketing material used by Defendants. Defendants shall, for a period of five (5) years, submit to the Commission, on an annual basis, no later than fifteen (15) days after the anniversary of the date of entry of this Order, a summary report indicating their efforts to comply with the requirements of this Paragraph. These annual reports shall be submitted to the Commission's Associate Director for Marketing Practices at the address listed in Paragraph XI of this Order.

B. Failing promptly to investigate any consumer complaint concerning any marketing material used by Defendants or the failure of any product sold by Defendants to meet any representation made in any marketing material used by Defendants received by Defendants, their successors, assigns, officers, agents, servants, employees and distributors, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order and promptly to notify the consumer of the proposed resolution of the complaint and the reason therefore.

V.

REDRESS AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that,

A. Judgment is entered jointly and severally against Defendants in the amount of $634,222.45, which represents the Defendants' total sales revenue from any product known as "Instant Internet Empires" as stated in the affidavit of Defendant Irwin F. Kern, IV dated June 23, 2003 and submitted to the Commission; Defendants shall pay the Commission $247,275.32, on or before the fifth (5th) business day following the date of this Order.

C. All funds released pursuant to this Final Order shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund.

In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may pay any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to the defendants practices as alleged in the complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited into the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Paragraph.

VI.

RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that,

A. The Commission's agreement to this Final Order is expressly premised upon the financial condition of Defendants as represented in the sworn financial statements provided to the Commission and dated May 15, 2003 and any amendments thereto submitted to the Commission through June 20, 2003 which include material information upon which the Commission relied in negotiating and consenting to this Final Order. Defendants state that those financial statements and any amendments thereto are complete and accurate representations of their financial conditions as of June 20, 2003. If, upon motion by the Commission, this Court should find that any Defendant made a material misrepresentation or omitted material information concerning their respective financial condition, then the Court shall enter a modified judgment holding that any such defendant is liable to the Commission in the amount of $634,222.45, which Defendants and the Commission stipulate, for the sole purpose of enforcement of this provision of the Order, is the amount of consumer injury caused by Defendants. This amount, less the sum of payments made by all Defendants to this action, shall become immediately due and payable by any such defendant, and interest computed at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, shall immediately begin to accrue on the unpaid balance.

B. Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true for the sole purpose of any subsequent litigation filed by the Commission to enforce its rights pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint filed in any bankruptcy proceeding.

C. Any proceedings instituted under this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including any other proceedings that the FTC may initiate to enforce this Order.

VII.

LIFTING OF ASSET FREEZE

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the freeze against the assets of Defendants pursuant to Section IV of the TRO entered by this Court on May 8, 2003 as amended by the Order entered by this Court on May 22, 2003 and any subsequent Order of this Court, shall be lifted for the sole purpose of transferring funds to the FTC pursuant to Paragraph V of this Final Order, and thereafter dissolved upon transfer of all such funds.

VIII.

TRANSFER OF CUSTOMER LISTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendants are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from selling, renting, leasing, transferring or otherwise disclosing the name, address, telephone number, credit card number, bank account number, e-mail address, or other identifying information of any person who paid any money to any Defendant for any product known as "Instant Internet Empires" at any time prior to entry of this Order, in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of any business opportunity or business development aid (including but not limited to Instant Internet Empires).
