

About

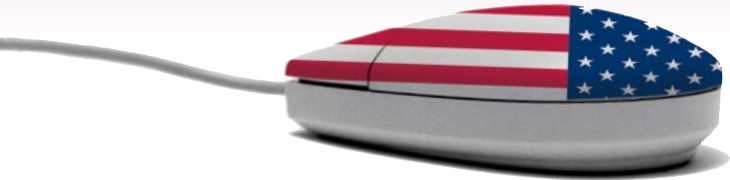

USASearch.gov

USASearch, www.usasearch.gov, provides you government information you can trust. Information is gathered from official government sources only. It is the U.S. government's official search engine and helps citizens locate federal, state and local information without sifting through a vast number of individual sites.

USASearch is easy to use and provides relevant results with Microsoft's MSN Search Index and Vivisimo's unique meta-searching technology.

“Getting information on taxes, passports and numerous other topics is easier than ever due to a new search engine added to the U.S. Government's official portal.”
