

or hate where the sole thought is the welfare of the United States of America. No man can occupy the office of President without realizing that he is President of all the people. And no man can sit through four years such as these last four years without pouring out every ounce of his physical strength, his patience and intelligence for the fulfillment of that trust for the well-being of all the people.

It is because I have sought to think in terms of the whole Nation that I am confident that today, just as four years ago, the people want more than promises.

Our vision for the future contains more than promises.

A. This
~~What~~ is our answer to those who, silent about their own plans, ask us to state our objectives? H Of course we will continue to seek ~~in every way~~ to improve working conditions for the workers of America -- to reduce hours over-long, to increase wages that spell starvation, to end the labor of children, to wipe out sweatshops. Of course we will continue every effort to end monopoly in business, to support collective bargaining, to stop unfair competition, to