

2004 CFC Hero Nomination

Nominee: John Smith

Federal Agency: Federal Aviation Administration

Choose one: Military Postal Civilian

CFC Role: LFCC Member Loaned Executive Keyworker
 Other:

Examples of Nominee's Achievements in the 2004 CFC:

- Trained and mentored CFC coordinators
- Produced a local CFC video
- Hosted fundraising events at two Federal buildings that resulted in a 10% increase in pledges

Description of Personal Background or Life Experience that Influenced Nominee's Efforts:

Mr. Smith has served in various CFC roles throughout his 15 year Federal career. As a keyworker, he developed a CFC information packet that has been attributed to a 10% participation increase in each of the three years it was used. As a Loaned Executive, Mr. Smith produced a local CFC video that highlighted the efforts of Federal employees in the area. He also formatted the video for posting on the local campaign website. During his ten years on the LFCC, he has served four terms as chairperson, reconfigured the Loaned Executive program to make it a professional development experience for employees, and expanded the committee to include representation from the five major Federal agencies in the region.

Description of Nominees Volunteerism Outside of the Workplace:

A lifelong resident of Hometown, Mr. Smith is dedicated to the local community. In addition to being a member of the town council, he is an after-school tutor working with at-risk children.