1 [Put quite simply, allowing the Yucca Mountain project to be completed is completely irresponsible.

You're worried more about the $7+ billion already invested over the future health and welfare of the citizens of this country.

$7 billion is NOTHING compared to the settlements you will be paying out after the multitude of lawsuits are filed.

Between the rail and trucking industries pathetic safety record to the obvious bulls eye target painted on all transportation delivery conveyances and the site itself for terrorists; this is nothing but a disaster waiting to happen.]

Idiots - the entire lot of you.
