*Hi I'm outraged of the thought that they would move something here that would cause people cancer and other health problems. I would want to move from Nevada real fast, if I find out that they're going to move it to yucca. What a nightmare president that would have that moved here.