OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
ROOM 159
SIXTH AND PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20580

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

IT HAS COME TO MY ATTENTION THAT THE FTC
IS CONSIDERING RELAXING THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE U.S. MADE PRODUCTS CONTENT POLICY.

ANY POLICY CHANGE WOULD BE UNNECESSARY AND
A DETRIMENT TO THE AMERICAN CONSUMER.
THE AMERICAN CONSUMER NEEDS, IF ANYTHING,
MORE ACCURACY AND ACCOUNTABILITY.

WE LOOK TO THE FTC TO CONTINUE TO MAINTAIN OUR BEST INTERESTS AND NOT FALL PREY TO GLOBALISM HYPE AND CORPORATE GREED.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S OBLIGATION TO THE
AMERICAN PUBLIC, WHETHER CONSUMER OR
WORKER, MUST NEVER BE COMPROMISED. WE MUST NEVER WAIVER FROM THE HIGHEST OF STANDARDS AND EXPECTATIONS.
