Donald Clark, Sec.
 Federal Trade Commission

Dear Sir:

A recent article prompts this letter regarding the "Made in the U.S.A." label. I have spent all my life checking for this label & am proud to say that almost everything I buy has it.

I'm disgusted with the trend of imported merchandise, and products made "partially" here. I want to know that what I buy was produced in the U.S.A. where our union workers are paid a fair price for their days work. It may cost a little more but it may also last a little longer. I may even save in the long run, if I don't have to pay the high taxes to support our unemployed workers on welfare.

Keep the "Made in the U.S.A." label! It is important to me and to our nation.

Thank you,
