EMPLOYMENT

NOTICE: The Equal Opportunity Commission has issued regulations to the effect that placement of help wanted advertisements in columns classified on the basis of sex will be considered as an expression of a preference based on sex and in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This law prohibits discrimination based on sex unless sex is a bona fide occupational qualification for the particular job involved. Therefore, advertisers subject to the regulations will list available jobs under general heading "HELP WANTED". Persons of both sexes should consult the listing under this heading. Where there is an indication of a preference for a particular sex, the advertiser represents that such sex is a bona fide occupational qualification (BFOQ) for the job in question or that compliance is not covered by the Civil Rights Act.
