Title: Deputy Director for Elections Administration

Johnnie F. McLean grew up in Memphis, TN, and moved to Raleigh, NC in 1984 when Bob, her husband of 41 years, was transferred. They have two married daughters and two grandsons. Before leaving Memphis, she was active in the local chapter of Jaycettes and served at the State level. Serving in many roles at the State Board of Elections since August 1985, she has also served on two Elections Center Taskforces for Election Reform since 2000, represents North Carolina on the EAC Standards Board and was an Official Election Observer for the Scottish Elections in 2007. Church activities, flower gardening and sewing occupy her 'leisure time' and spoiling her grandchildren is one of her greatest accomplishments.
