RE: Prerecorded Message EBR, Telemarketing Project No. R411001

Dear FTC:

PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE do NOT change the current restrictions on telemarketing calls to my home by voice or, worse yet, via automation. The automated calls during the election were bad enough – and I don't even live in a swing state, where the political telemarketing was truly oppressive. Please don't put us on track to the bad old days where phones would ring during dinner and other inconvenient times.

If I want services, I'll go get them – I still have a phone book and Internet access. I WILL NOT respond to an automated call in any case and I suspect I'm not alone in that feeling.

I put myself on the do-not-call list because I consider it an unwelcome invasion of my home and right to privacy. PLEASE do not alter the current restrictions or do anything that will promote intrusive inbound telemarketing!

Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "John C. Wagner".
