Dear Lorraine,

Please find enclosed an e-mail from one of my constituents, Mr. Richard Ross of Beave West Virginia. Mr. Ross contacted my office regarding the FTC's proposal to allow telemarketers to deliver pre-recorded messages to consumers. I would appreciate if you could respond to his concerns, and that you send a copy of your response to my Washington office.

Thank you for your consideration. My best to you.

Sincerely,

John D. Rockefeller IV

Subject: Proposed FCC Rule Change

Dear Senator Rockefeller:

Please do not allow the FCC to change their rules to allow "pre-recorded messages" to be placed on my answering machine. Since the advent of the "do-not-call" list my phone has been so pleasantly quiet, except for the occasional "charity" call, that I am thrilled. If you change your rules I will be inundated by an unwanted and incessant ringing of my phone, probably at the dinner hour. Please do not allow pre-recorded messages to be made to those who signed up for the "do-not-call" list (and that is the list that will be used).

Richard Ross
