

Serving You

Serving You

As the elected representative of New York's 28th district, it is Congresswoman's Slaughter's privilege to provide her constituents with a variety of services. Please click the appropriate links below for more information about your issue of concern.

District Offices

Rep. Slaughter's district offices are here to serve you!

Federal Casework

Please contact one of Rep. Slaughter's district offices if you need help dealing with federal agencies.

Flag Requests

You may purchase an American flag to be flown over the U.S. Capitol to commemorate an anniversary, birthday, or other special occasion.

Visiting DC?

Rep. Slaughter can assist you with the most popular tourist attractions on your visit to DC!

Student Opportunities

Rep. Slaughter offers internship opportunities in the Washington D.C., Rochester, Niagara Falls, and Buffalo offices to student who are interested in seeing first-hand how our government works.

Grants and Federal Funding

We can assist you by identifying sources of federal grant funding, providing information about particular federal programs, assisting with proposals development, writing letters of support, and acting as your advocate for federal agencies.

Direct Constituent Services

Learn how Louise's offices can help you.

Privacy Release Form

The Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits federal agencies from releasing personal information about an individual without that individual's expressed written consent. In order for Rep. Slaughter to be of assistance to you, please complete the Privacy Release Form and return it to the Rochester District Office as soon as possible.

Note: The rules of Congressional Courtesy require that individuals residing outside of the 28th Congressional District be referred to the Member of Congress who represents them. To verify your congressional district, search the Member of Congress directory by zip code at <http://www.house.gov/>.