

In the outpatient clinic, the nurse checks Marcy's temperature.

Vital signs—temperature, blood pressure, respiration, and pulse—may be taken often during the day. Other measurements including height and weight may also be taken.

INFORMATION FOR Pediatric
Patients
& THEIR FAMILIES

NIH Clinical Center
National Institutes of Health

