

NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH IC INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES MEETING

Tuesday, March 9, 2004

1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Lawton Chiles International House (Stone House), Conference Room

AGENDA

- |      |                                                                                                                            |                                                                                 |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I.   | Welcome/Comments                                                                                                           | Dr. Sharon HrynkowActing Director, FIC                                      |
| II.  | NIH Roundtable Discussion on the Management and Monitoring of Grants in the Developing World                               | Dr. Karen HofmanDirector, FIC/DASPAwithDr. Danuta KrotoskiNICHD |
| III. | Status on preparation of WHO Report on “Knowledge for Better Health” and planning for Summit in Mexico City, November 2004 | Mr. Rob EissFIC Senior Advisor forStrategic Initiatives                 |
| IV.  | NIH Roadmap Initiatives and International Research                                                                         | Dr. Dushanka KleinmanNIH Office of the Director                             |
| V.   | Announcements and Informational Items                                                                                      | All                                                                             |
| VI.  | Adjourn                                                                                                                    |                                                                                 |