Addiction Science & Clinical Practice is published twice yearly to promote dialogue between researchers and providers with the aim of improving drug abuse treatment and research.

AS&CP obtains articles through reader submissions and editorial commissioning. Readers may send brief letters proposing articles that will be of interest and value to both researchers and practitioners. Final acceptance of submitted articles is contingent upon editorial judgment that it is suitable for publication in a NIDA journal and the results of peer review. Send letters to Associate Managing Editor at the address below.

AS&CP is a publication of the National Institute on Drug Abuse, National Institutes of Health.
