

Subject: Animal Testing

Date: Tuesday, June 5, 2007 2:41 PM

From: Rosanne Galak

It has been my understanding for many years that there are many alternatives to using animals for the purpose of research in laboratories. Why can't the United States stand up as a leader in alternatives rather than a laggard? It simply astounds me.