

INFORMATION FOR Pediatric
Patients
& THEIR FAMILIES

NIH Clinical Center
National Institutes of Health

Jim and his family talk to their social worker.

Clinical social workers help patients and their families learn about resources that can help them with hospitalization. The social worker can also help them cope with issues that arise related to their illness and discharge planning.