

Data Management and Coordinating Center

The Center will be responsible for coordinating the EDRN research activities, providing logistic support, and conducting statistical and computational research for data analysis, analyzing data for validation. The data center will develop a common database for Network research.

- Objectives of the EDRN Data Management and Coordinating Center.
- Ziding Feng, principal investigator.