The screenshot shows the Oracle MyHR web application interface. The main header includes the 'myHR' logo, the date 'July 26, 1999', and the user's name 'Pat Baldwin, Director of Products Development'. A search bar is present with the keyword 'policies'. The interface is divided into several sections:

- Alerts: A blue callout box points to a list of issues including Budget, Turnover, Recruiting Costs, and Performance Review.
- Web Expenses: A blue callout box points to the 'Home' tab in the top navigation bar.
- To Do List: A blue callout box points to a list of tasks including Open Enrollment, My Approval List, and Leadership Dev.
- Collaboration: A blue callout box points to the 'Calendar' section, which shows a calendar for July and a list of events like 'Oracle Picnic News' and 'Live! Insite Day'.
- HR Intelligence: A blue callout box points to a 'Headcount' line chart showing 'Total', 'Gains', and 'Losses' from July 1998 to February 1999. Below the chart is a table titled 'HEADCOUNT ANALYSIS - EXPECTED HIRES'.
- Organization Chart: A blue callout box points to a section showing an organizational hierarchy for 'Baldwin, Pat' with subordinates like Nute, Mary; Baxter, Randy; Srivanich, Anne; Fletcher, Louise; and Thompson, Emma.
- Company News: A blue callout box points to a news section with a headline 'SAP Stock Plummets'.
