* Adapted from NCI

* For purposes of meeting planning, NIDA considers a jurisdiction (state, city, town, or county) smoke-free if it provides employees and the general public complete or near complete protection from ETS in enclosed workplaces, including restaurants. Inclusion of bars is not required at this time. Additionally, the list includes states with laws that allow minor exemptions to a smoke-free workplace, such as: employers with five or fewer employees may allow smoking if all employees consent; private workplaces that are open to the public by appointment only are exempt; and others.
