

Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program

DISAST RECOV

GSA plays a critical role in providing disaster recovery products and services to federal agencies. Now state and local governments can also benefit from the speed and savings of GSA Federal Supply Schedules.

Section 833 of the John Warner National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2007 provides state and local governments with access to all GSA Federal Supply Schedules for the purchase of products and services to be used to facilitate recovery from a Presidentially declared disaster, terrorism, or nuclear, biological, chemical, or radiological attack.

Purchasing in Advance of a Disaster:

In the aftermath of emergency events, state or local governments' systems may be disrupted. Thus, use of Federal Supply Schedule contracts prior to these events to acquire products or services to be used to facilitate recovery is authorized.

State or local governments are responsible for ensuring that the products and services purchased under the Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program will be used to facilitate recovery from a major disaster.

Purchasing via the Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program

- Voluntary Use
 - Participation in the Disaster Recovery Purchasing Program is voluntary for both state and local governments and Schedule contractors.

- GSA Schedule contractors that agree to participate in the program, along with their available products and services, are identified in GSA eLibrary and on GSA Advantage!® with the DISAST RECOV icon. Orders may be placed directly with participating GSA Schedule contractors. Orders may also be placed through the GSA Advantage!® online shopping and ordering system using a state or local government issued credit card.

- Competition

- While GSA recommends that state and local purchasing officials follow the Schedule ordering procedures in Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 8.4 to ensure receiving the best value from GSA Schedule contractors, use of these procedures is not mandated by GSA.
- When purchasing from GSA Schedules, state and local government entities should follow the ordering and competitive procedures that meet their state and local procurement regulations.
- State or local entities that want to receive reimbursement from FEMA public assistance grants need to ensure that they are following the Stafford Act and FEMA public assistance program preferences and procedures. GSA State and Local Resources

The wealth of GSA's resources is not limited to federal agencies alone. Many state and local agencies can benefit from a variety of products and services offered throughout GSA. This important aspect of GSA's mission is divided into six distinct programs that provide access to important tools for specific state and local objectives.
