Hope all is well with you, and great job on the Classic this year. Also, as a reminder did you ever find a extra bag of goodies for me, those are always nice to have, don't go to any trouble only if there is a extra laying around.
Thanks

Brett -- It would be the adjusted amount that you bill. I just wanted you to put on the bill the committed amount as a reminder to those that said yes. I did tell everyone that I would adjust the bill depending on how much the Bronze went for.

thanks

Carl:

Thanks for the email. I just want to be clear, do you want us to bill them for the amount they committed, or the amount after adjustment?

I am still working on the bag. I'll keep you posted.
