“Economic recovery funds for child care will be allocated as CCDBG Discretionary funds and subject to the rules of that funding stream. Discretionary funds do not require a state match. According to CCDBG law, discretionary funds must be obligated (or legally committed) within two years and spent within three years. Discretionary expenditures are included in the 4 percent requirement for spending on quality initiatives. The bill specifies that $2 billion in child care funding will be available through September 30, 2010.

Portions of these funds may be allocated through FY 2009 and FY 2010 by HHS. The bill reserves approximately $255 million for quality initiatives, including $94 million to improve the quality of infant/toddler care. These funds are included in the $2 billion allocated to states. Estimates of state allocations are based on estimated FFY 2009 CCDBG Funding Allocations (Prior to Appropriation), which are based on the previous Bush Administration’s FY 2009 budget request and are subject to change (<http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/ccb/law/allocations/current/state2009/2009allocations.htm>).”

- To be eligible to drawdown funds, states do not have to increase absolute levels of spending, just spending in the three categories listed above.

Time Line:           .

Details:               ARRA - 332

Estimated New Hampshire Funds Based on Governor's Budget

NH will receive reimbursement for 80% of new costs due to 2009 and 2010 caseload increases. We are unable to determine how much we might receive. NH can show a modest increase in the 1st quarter of '09 but only if solely state funded programs are included in the calculation. It is unclear whether we will have caseload increases in other quarters; the amount of money we can draw down is unclear. However, any extra money would already be being spent on assistance to this caseload increase. Federal guidance has not yet been issued.

Also, this new legislation provides a one-time payment of $250 to Social Security and Supplemental Security Income beneficiaries.

All information is the best available as of 3/06/09 and is subject to change. Estimated funds may change significantly as federal agencies finalize allocations and/or competitive grants are awarded.

Program Title: FMAP Related to Increases in State Unemployment Rate

Short Description: Increase in state unemployment monies based on unemployment rate.

Estimated New Hampshire Funds:

Granting Agency: U.S. Department of Health & Human Services

Managing Agency: Department of Health & Human Services

Award Criteria:

Details: ARRA – page 192

In addition to the 6.2% increase in federal financial participation for Medicaid and Foster Care/Adoption Services, if the State’s unemployment rate increases, the State is entitled to additional FMAP. The base period is the lowest average monthly unemployment rate for any a 3-consecutive month period since January, 2006. For NH that would be the 3.37% rate for the 3 months ended December 2007.

Unemployment Change	FMAP Increase	Base FMAP	Total FMAP Enhancement
<1.4% points	0.00%	6.20%	6.20%

>2.5%-<3.5% points	4.51%	6.20%	10.71%
3.5% + points	6.11%	6.20%	12.31%

The unemployment at January 2009 rate of 5.1% would not qualify for the enhancement. If, however, the unemployment rate increases as has been projected by some economists, the NH FMAP enhancement could be as follows: If the State unemployment rate remains constant as in 2/09, the State would be eligible for a 2.92% increase under FMAP

Short Description:    The Stimulus Bill temporarily restores funding to the Child Support program for the duration of the bill. The Federal Government pays States an incentive payment for performance achieved in five specific areas. Prior to the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, States had been allowed to use incentives as a 34% match to draw additional 66% Federal funds. The ARRA reinstates this matching ability. For NH, the temporary restoration of the "matching" capability will result in an additional $6.9 million dollars in federal funds.
