

HIGH SEAS SALMON FISHERY OFF THE COAST OF ALASKA

VIOLATION	VIOLATION HISTORY - PENALTY AMOUNT
	All Violations
Permit Violations
Commercial fishing for salmon without holding a valid State of Alaska power troll permanent entry or interim use permit or a permit issued by the Regional Director	$5,000-$10,000*
Personal use fishing for salmon without holding a valid State of Alaska sport fishing license	$1,000, plus forfeiture of catch
Altering, erasing or mutilating a permit	$500
Failure to carry permit on board and failure to show it to an authorized officer upon request	$1,000
Failure to report changes in permit information to the Regional Director within 30 days	$500
Closed Season/Area Violations
Fishing for, taking or retaining salmon in a closed area, during a closed season, after closure of an area where a catch limitation is reached, or otherwise contrary to a field order	$5,000-$10,000, plus forfeiture or value of catch
Reporting Violations
Failure to submit within one week a complete and accurate State of Alaska fish ticket (or equivalent) for each sale of delivery of salmon in the EEZ or at a port outside Alaska	$5,000-$10,000, plus forfeiture or value of catch notes: * The size of the vessel may be considered in establishing the penalty level.