

PROCLAMATION
DAYS OF REMEMBRANCE
“NEVER AGAIN: WHAT YOU DO MATTERS”

Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009

Whereas, the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Jews were the primary victims – six million were murdered; Gypsies, the handicapped, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons. Millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents, also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny.

Whereas, the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and

Whereas, we the people of the City of Boulder Should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny, and

Whereas, we the people of the City of Boulder should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and

Whereas, the Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the people of the City of Boulder to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all peoples; and

Whereas, pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980) the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009 including the Day of Remembrance known as Yom Hashoah, April 21;

NOW, THEREFORE I, Matthew Appelbaum, Mayor of the City of Boulder, Colorado, do hereby declare Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009 as in the City of Boulder, and call on all citizens to remember the memory of the victims of the Holocaust, and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of the City of Boulder should strive to overcome intolerance and indifference through learning and remembrance.

HENCE, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Boulder to be affixed this 17, day of March, 2009.

Matthew Appelbaum, Mayor
