

GENEALOGY WORKSHOPS

PRESENTED BY:

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Fall 2008 Workshops:

9/9 Finding Family: Using ALIC - NARA's Online Library

The Archives Library Information Center (ALIC) is more than a traditional library. Recognizing that our customers no longer expect to work within the walls of a library building, these pages are designed to provide NARA staff and researchers nationwide with convenient access to content beyond the physical holdings of our two traditional libraries.

10/14 New York Archives Week – National Archives Open House

In celebration of New York Archives Week, the National Archives is hosting an open house from 12 noon until 2:00 pm for Genealogists, Researchers, Students, and anyone interested in learning more about the National Archives. You will get a behind-the-scenes tour of the facility and archival stack area. Presentations will include featured documents from our vault.

11/10 Finding Family: Using eVetRecs

The National Archives is the official repository for records of military personnel who have been discharged from the U.S. Air Force, Army, Marine Corps, Navy, and Coast Guard. Military personnel records can be used as a valuable tool in genealogical research. Most veterans and their next-of-kin can obtain free copies of their DD Form 214 (Report of Separation) and other military and medical records using eVetRecs.

12/9 Finding Family: Using Court Records

Was grandma a bootlegger? Did grandpa pay his taxes? Records from Federal courts are among the National Archives' largest holdings. The records cover topics ranging from land ownership, slavery, taxation, and immigration. We will discuss these court records and how you can access this important resource.

All workshops are from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM

Workshops are free but space is limited, so please call, fax, or email to register.
