Foreign Language Instructors

Foreign Language Instructors. One of the most important contributions you can make to meeting the mission of the CIA is enabling others to understand world cultures. Your native-level fluency and expert knowledge of a foreign region's history, customs, politics and economy will strengthen your students' ability to communicate with others and work in locations around the world. In return, you'll earn a competitive salary and receive a hiring bonus — while supporting the efforts of American foreign policy.

Applicants must successfully complete a thorough medical and psychological exam, a polygraph interview and an extensive background investigation. As part of the screening process, selected applicants must take proficiency tests in their native language. US citizenship is required. An equal opportunity employer and a drug-free work force.
