

Federal Housing Finance Board

DECISION MEMORANDUM OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
ACTING WITHOUT A QUORUM

Date: March 29, 1995

No. 95-DM- 23

ISSUE: Blanket consent, pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 932.40, for the Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston (Boston Bank) to employ outside counsel that may also represent Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLBank) member institutions.

FACTORS CONSIDERED:

Section 932.40 of the Federal Housing Finance Board's (Finance Board) regulations provides generally that counsel to the FHLBanks "shall not act in any capacity for a member . . . under any understanding providing for continuous or repeated services, or act in any capacity for any such institution in any matter requiring action by the [FHL]Bank or any of its directors . . ." See 12 C.F.R. § 932.40. The regulation provides for an exception to the regulatory prohibitions where the employment is with the prior consent of the Finance Board, and to the extent of such consent. See id.

The Boston Bank has requested that the Finance Board provide blanket consent so that the Boston Bank may employ outside counsel that also may represent FHLBank member institutions.

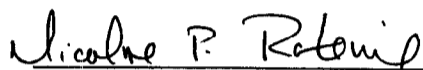

The Finance Board interprets the regulatory language as applying to outside counsel employed by the FHLBanks. See id.

The regulation most likely was intended to address potential conflict of interest situations that could arise due to the FHLBanks' roles as agent for the former Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB) in examining, regulating, and insuring thrift institutions, as well as in providing wholesale credit to FHLBank member institutions. The Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 abolished the FHLBB, transferred all insurance functions to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and eliminated the FHLBanks' examination and regulatory functions. Accordingly, the potential for conflicts of interest arising out of the former examination, regulatory, and insurance roles of the Boston Bank no longer exists.

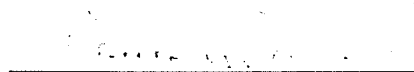

In addition, the Finance Board has determined that existing standards of conduct and procedures applicable to the legal profession already provide adequate protection to the Boston Bank against potential conflicts of interest that could arise due to its role as provider of wholesale credit to FHLBank member institutions.

Accordingly, the Boston Bank should be able to employ outside counsel that also may represent FHLBank member institutions, without first having to obtain prior consent, on a case-by-case basis, from the Finance Board. The Finance Board has determined that this can be effected by providing consent for the Boston Bank to employ such outside counsel, on a blanket basis.

DECISION: To provide blanket consent, pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 932.40, for the Boston Bank to employ outside counsel that also may represent FHLBank member institutions.
