

Summary of Functions for FERC's Former eTariff Distributed Software

Installation

- Windows operating systems only
- Desktop based
- Installation through installation wizard
- Automatic software update check/installation once a day

Configuration

- Locate data base on desktop, server or both
- Unlimited number of regulated entities
- Unlimited number of tariff data bases per regulated entity
- Default contact information by regulated entity
- Simultaneous multiple user access to all data
- Multiple user ability to edit tariff records and/or tariff filings except for the same record at the same time

Tariff Creation

- Create unlimited number of tariffs per regulated entity
- Create tariffs with up to 7 levels of hierarchical structure
- Virtually unlimited number of sections per tariff
- RTF, PDF and combined RFT/PDF capable at the tariff record level
- Copy complete tariffs from any other regulated entity and import into another regulated entity's tariff creation work area
- Copy and paste section or sections from one tariff to another maintaining tariff structure up to the full 7 levels of hierarchy
- In default mode, transparently creates most tariff record metadata
- Ability to group-select tariff records to perform mass edits of certain data, such as proposed effective date
- Automatic resectionalizing numbers for both correlation and section values
- Full featured RTF word processor, capable of receiving most copied material including text, RTF supported formats, and graphics
- Direct edit section metadata to recorrelate or sectionalize sections
- Direct import tariffs from other sources utilizing non-proprietary formats
- Export tariff to a non-proprietary formatted folder

Tariff Filing Creation

- Presents pick list of FERC proffered types of filing appropriate for the regulated entity's registered program
- Type of filings are context sensitive – presents available tariff filing appropriate for establishing tariff filing associations

Complete historical list of all tariff filings made with the Commission with date of filing and Commission's SOC accepted filing date and docket number.

Complete list of all unfiled and work in progress tariff filings, color coded based on status and sortable on a variety of metadata

Provides a list of all FERC required attachments and any restrictions associated with the attachments (required, public, etc.)

Ability to browse and select single or a group of attachments to upload into the tariff filing and assign a default file description

Ability to edit select tariff filing metadata, such as contact information, descriptions of tariff filing and the attachments

Creates various tariff filing packages for complete review of tariff filing, supervisor review, service to customers, and web posting

Direct import tariff filings from other sources utilizing non-proprietary formats

Export tariff filings to a non-proprietary formatted folder

Tariff Filing with the Commission

Transparent creation of FERC compatible tariff filing package

Validation checks to confirm the validity and of type of filing and tariff filing attachments, and context of tariff record attachments, with clear and understandable error codes

Creates record that the tariff filing package was electronically sent to FERC

Automatic update of all tariff filing statuses on a daily basis

Tariff Maintenance

Automatic daily tariff maintenance for both tariff record and tariff filing statuses

Ability to manually maintain a separate tariff records statuses in a separate tariff database

All of the tariff record's history summarized and color coded based on status, in context, and full text available with click of the mouse

Ability to jump from one historical tariff record straight to its originating tariff filing

Ability to track historical associations of within a tariff record

Generates NAESB compliant tariff material for posting on regulated entities' web sites

Search

Fully search capabilities of both text and metadata, including tariff record status, docket number, date, tariff database and other parameters

Print

Ability to print tariff by section, groups of sections, complete tariff, and by effective date

Ability to select what metadata to print with each section