General Instructions Purpose of Form

Use Form 4868 to ask for 4 more months to file Form 1040A or Form 1040. You do not have to explain why you are asking for the extension. We will contact you only if your request is denied.

To get the extra time you MUST:

• Fill in Form 4868 correctly, AND

- File it by the due date of your return, AND
- Pay ALL of the amount shown on line 6.
 If you already had 2 extra months to file because you were "out of the country" (explained on page 2) when your return was due, then use this form to ask for an additional 2 months to file.

Do not file Form 4868 if you want the IRS to figure your tax or are under a court order to file your return by the regular due date.

Note: An extension of time to file your 1992 calendar year income tax return also extends the time to file a gift tax return (Form 709 or 709-A) for 1992.

If the automatic extension does not give you enough time, you can later ask for additional time. But you'll have to give a good reason, and it must be approved by the IRS. To ask for the additional time, you must do either of the following:

- 1. File Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.
- 2. Explain your reason in a letter. Mail it to the address under Where To File.

File Form 4868 before you file Form 2688 or write a letter asking for more time. Only in cases of undue hardship will we approve your request for more time without first receiving Form 4868. If you need this extra time, ask for it early so that you can still file your return on time if your request is not approved.

When To File Form 4868

File Form 4868 by April 15, 1993. If you are filing a fiscal year Form 1040, file Form 4868 by the regular due date of your return.

If you had 2 extra months to file your return because you were out of the country, file Form 4868 by June 15, 1993, for a 1992 calendar year return.

Filing Your Tax Return

You may file Form 1040A or Form 1040 any time before the extension of time is up. But remember, Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay taxes. If you do not pay the amount due by the regular due date, you will owe interest. You may also be charged penalties. Don't attach a copy of Form 4868 to your return.

Interest.—You will owe interest on any tax not paid by the regular due date of your return. The interest runs until you pay the tax. Even if you had a good reason for not paying on time, you will still owe interest.

Late Payment Penalty.—The penalty is usually 1/2 of 1% of any tax (other than estimated tax) not paid by the regular due date. It is charged for each month or part of a month the tax is unpaid. The maximum penalty is 25%. You might not owe this penalty if you have a good reason for not paying on time. Attach a statement to your return, not Form 4868, explaining the reason.

Late Filing Penalty.—A penalty is usually charged if your return is filed after the due date (including extensions). It is usually 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date for each month or part of a month your return is late. Generally, the maximum penalty is 25%. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty is $100 or the balance of tax due on your return, whichever is smaller. You might not owe the penalty if you have a good reason for filing late. Attach a full explanation to your return, not Form 4868, if you file late.

How To Claim Credit for Payment Made With This Form.—When you file your return, show the amount of any payment (line 6) sent with Form 4868. Form 1040A filers should include the payment on line 28d and write "Form 4868" and the amount paid in the space to the left. Form 1040 filers should enter it on line 57.

If you and your spouse each filed a separate Form 4868 but later file a joint return for 1992, enter the total paid with both Forms 4868 on the correct line of your joint return.

If you and your spouse jointly filed Form 4868 but later file separate returns for 1992, you may enter the total amount paid with Form 4868 on either of your separate returns. Or you and your spouse may divide the payment in any agreed amounts. Be sure each separate return has the social security numbers of both spouses.

Specific Instructions

Name, Address, and Social Security Number.—Enter your name, address, and social security number. If you plan to file a joint return, also enter your spouse's name and social security number. If your post office does not bring mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, enter your box number instead.

Note: If you changed your mailing address after you filed your last return, you should use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 4868 will not update your record. To order Form 8822, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Fiscal Year Filers.—In the area provided above line 1, enter the date your 4-month extension will end and the date your tax year

Out of the Country.—If you already had 2 extra months to file because you were a U.S. citizen or resident and were out of the country on the due date of your return, write "Taxpayer Abroad" across the top of this form. "Out of the country" means either (1) you live outside the United States and Puerto Rico AND your main place of work is outside the United States and Puerto Rico, or (2) you are in military or naval service outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

Line 7.—If you or your spouse are also using the extra 4 months to file a 1992 gift tax return, check whichever box applies on line 7. But if your spouse files a separate Form 4868, do not check the box for your spouse.

Lines 8a and 8b.-Enter the amount you (or your spouse) expect to owe on these lines. If your spouse files a separate Form 4868, enter on your form only the total gift tax and GST tax you expect to owe. Pay in full with this form to avoid interest and penalties. If paying gift and GST taxes on time would cause you undue hardship (not just inconvenience), attach an explanation to this form.

Your Signature.—This form must be signed. If you plan to file a joint return, both of you should sign. If there is a good reason why one of you cannot, then the other spouse may sign for both. Attach a statement explaining why the other spouse cannot sign.

Others Who Can Sign for You.—Anyone with a power of attorney can sign. But the following can sign for you without a power of attorney:

- Attorneys, CPAs, and enrolled agents.
- A person in close personal or business relationship to you who is signing because you cannot. There must be a good reason why you cannot sign, such as illness or absence. Attach an explanation to this form.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 26 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 11 min.; Preparing the form, 20 min.; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 20 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, T:FP; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0188), Washington, DC 20503. DO NOT send this form to either of these offices. Instead, see Where To File on this page.
