The information in boxes 1, 2, and 3 is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if the IRS determines that an underpayment of tax results because you overstated a deduction for this mortgage interest or for these points or because you did not report this refund of interest on your return.

Instructions for Payer/Borrower

A person (including a financial institution, a governmental unit, and a cooperative housing corporation) who is engaged in a trade or business and, in the course of such trade or business, received from you at least $600 of mortgage interest (including certain points) on any one mortgage in the calendar year must furnish this statement to you.

If you received this statement as the payer of record on a mortgage on which there are other borrowers entitled to a deduction for the interest and points shown on this form, please furnish each of the other borrowers with information about the proper distribution of these amounts. Each borrower is entitled to deduct only the amount he or she paid and points paid by the seller that represent his or her share of the amount allowable as a deduction for mortgage interest and points.

If your mortgage payments were subsidized by a government agency, you may not be able to deduct the amount of the subsidy.

Box 1.—Shows the mortgage interest received by the interest recipient during the year. This amount includes interest on any obligation secured by real property, including a home equity, line of credit, or credit card loan. This amount does not include points, government subsidy payments, or seller payments on a "buy-down" mortgage. Such amounts are deductible by you only in certain circumstances. Caution: If you prepaid interest in 1997 that accrued in full by January 15, 1998, this prepaid interest may be included in box 1. However, even though the prepaid amount may be included in box 1, you cannot deduct the prepaid amount in 1997. For more information, see Pub. 936, Home Mortgage Interest Deduction. If you are a mortgage credit certificate holder who can claim the mortgage interest credit, see Form 8396, Mortgage Interest Credit. If the interest was paid on a mortgage, home equity, line of credit, or credit card loan secured by your personal residence, you may be subject to a deduction limitation as explained in the instructions for Schedule A (Form 1040).

Box 2.—Not all points are reportable to you. This form shows points you or the seller paid this year for the purchase of your principal residence that are required to be reported to you. Generally, these points are fully deductible in the year paid, but you must subtract seller-paid points from the basis of your residence. Other points not reported in this box may be deductible. See Pub. 936. Also see your Form 1040 instructions.

Box 3.—Do not deduct this amount. It is a refund (or credit) for overpayment(s) of interest you made in a prior year or years. Generally, list the total amount shown in box 3 on the "Other income" line on your 1997 Form 1040. However, do not report the refund as income if you did not itemize deductions in the year(s) you paid the interest. No adjustment to your prior year(s) tax return(s) is necessary. For more information, see Pub. 936 and Pub. 525, Taxable and Nontaxable Income.

Box 4.—This box is for use by the interest recipient to furnish other information to you, such as real estate taxes or insurance paid from escrow.
