- If you are a citizen but were not a resident of one of these jurisdictions at the end of your tax year, file your income tax return with the jurisdiction of which you are a citizen.
- If filing jointly, file your return in the jurisdiction of the spouse with the higher adjusted gross income (without regard to community property laws) for the tax year.

Sources of income. The rules for determining the sources of income are discussed in detail in sections 861 through 865.

Penalty for failure to furnish information. If you do not furnish the information we require, you may have to pay a penalty of $100 for each failure unless you can show your failure was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. This penalty is in addition to any criminal penalty provided by law.

Additional information. For more details, see Pub. 570, Tax Guide for Individuals With Income From U.S. Possessions. To get Pub. 570, see Quick and Easy Access to Tax Help and Forms in the Instructions for Form 1040.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.
