yeoman, of the District aforesaid, owing allegiance to the United States of America, wickedly devising and intending the peace and tranquillity of the said United States to disturb, and to prevent the execution of the laws thereof within the same, to wit, a law of the said United States, entitled "An act respecting fugitives from justice and persons escaping from the service of their masters," approved February twelfth, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and also a law of the said United States, entitled "An act to amend, and supplementary to, the act entitled 'An act respecting fugitives from justice and persons escaping from the service of their masters,' approved February twelfth one thousand seven hundred and ninety three," which latter supplementary act was approved September eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, on the eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty one, in the County of Lancaster, in the State of Pennsylvania and District aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, wickedly and traitorously did intend to levy war against the said United States within the same.

And to fulfil and bring to effect the said traitorous intention of them, the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet afterwards, to wit, on the day and year aforesaid, in the State District and County aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, with a great multitude of persons, whose names to this Inquest are as yet unknown, to a great number, to wit, to the number of one hundred persons and upwards, armed and arrayed in a warlike manner, that is to say, with guns, swords, and other warlike weapons, as well offensive as defensive, being then and there unlawfully and traitorously assembled, did traitorously assemble and combine against the said United States, and then and there, with force and arms, wickedly and traitorously, and with the wicked and traitorous intention to oppose and prevent, by means of intimidation and violence, the execution of the said laws of the United States within the same, did array and dispose themselves in a warlike and hostile manner against the said United States, and then and there, with force and arms, in pursuance of such their traitorous intention, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet with the said persons so as aforesaid, wickedly and traitorously did levy war against the United States.

And further to fulfil and bring to effect the said traitorous intention of them the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet and in pursuance and in execution of the said wicked and traitorous combination to oppose, resist and prevent the said laws of the United States from being carried into execution, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet — afterwards, to wit, on the day and year first aforesaid, in the State, District and County aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction aforesaid, with the said persons whose names to this Inquest are as yet unknown, did wickedly and traitorously assemble against the said United States with the avowed intention by force of arms and intimidation, to prevent the execution of the said laws of the said United States within the same; and in pursuance and execution of such their wicked and traitorous combination, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet then and there with force and arms, with the said persons to a great number, to wit, the number of one hundred persons and upwards, armed and arrayed in a warlike manner, that is to say, with guns, swords, and other warlike weapons, as well offensive as defensive, being then and there unlawfully and traitorously assembled, did wickedly knowingly and traitorously resist and oppose one Henry H. Kline, an officer duly appointed by Edward D. Ingraham, Esquire, a Commissioner duly appointed by the Circuit Court of the United States for the said District, in the execution of the duty of the office of the said Kline, he, the said Kline being appointed by the said Edward D. Ingraham, Esquire, by writing under his hand to execute warrants and other process issued by him the said Ingraham in the performance of his duties as Commissioner under the said laws of the United States; and then and there, with force and arms, with the said great multitude of persons, so as aforesaid unlawfully and traitorously assembled, and armed and arrayed in manner as aforesaid, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet wickedly and traitorously did oppose and resist, and prevent the said Kline from executing the lawful process to him directed and delivered by the said Commissioner against sundry persons, then residents of said County, who had been legally charged before the said Commissioner as being persons held to service or labor in the State of Maryland, and owing such service or labor to a certain Edward Gorsuch under the laws of the said State of Maryland had escaped therefrom into the said Eastern District of Pennsylvania; which process, duly issued by the said Commissioner, the said Kline then and there had in his possession, and was then and there proceeding to execute as by law he was bound to do; and so the grand Inquest, upon their respective oaths and affirmations aforesaid, do say, that the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet in manner aforesaid as much as in them lay, wickedly and traitorously did prevent, by means of force and intimidation, the execution of the said laws of the United States in the said State and District.

Kline, he the said Kline being an officer appointed by writing under the hand of the said Edward D. Ingraham, Esquire, a commissioner under said laws, to execute warrants and other process, issued by the said commissioner in the performance of his duties as such; and they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet did then and there, traitorously with force and arms, against the will of the said Kline, liberate and take out of his custody persons by him before that time arrested, and in his lawful custody here and there being, by virtue of lawful process against them issued by the said commissioner, they being legally charged with being persons held to service or labor in the State of Maryland and owing such service or labor to a certain Edward Gorsuch under the laws of the said state of Maryland, who had escaped therefrom into the said district; and so the Grand Inquest aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, do say, that they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet as much as in them lay, did then and there, in pursuance and in execution of the said wicked and traitorous combination and intention, wickedly and traitorously, by means of force and intimidation, prevent the execution of the said laws of the United States, in the said State and district.

And further to fulfill and bring to effect the said traitorous intention of them, the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet and in pursuance and in execution of the said wicked and traitorous combination to oppose, resist and prevent the said laws of the United States from being carried into execution, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet afterwards, to wit, on the day and year first aforesaid, and on divers other days both before and afterwards in the State and District aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, with the said persons to this Inquest as yet unknown, maliciously and traitorously did meet, conspire, consult, and agree among themselves, further to oppose, resist, and prevent, by means of force and intimidation, the execution of the said laws herein before specified.

And further to fulfil, perfect, and bring to effect the said traitorous intention of them, the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet and in pursuance and execution of the said wicked and traitorous combination to oppose and resist the said laws of the United States from being carried into execution, in the State and District aforesaid, they the said Castner Hanaway, Elijah Lewis and Joseph Scarlet together with the other persons whose names are to this Inquest as yet unknown, on the day and year first aforesaid, and on divers other days and times, as well before and after, at the District aforesaid within the jurisdiction of the said Court, with force and arms maliciously and traitorously did prepare and compose, and did then and there maliciously and traitorously cause and procure to be prepared and composed, divers books, pamphlets, letters, declarations, resolutions, addresses, papers and writings, and did then and there maliciously and traitorously publish and disperse and cause to be published and dispersed divers other books, pamphlets, letters, declarations, resolutions, addresses, papers, and writings, the said books, pamphlets, letters, declarations, resolutions, addresses, papers, and writings, so respectively prepared, composed, published and dispersed, as last aforesaid, containing therein, amongst other things incitements, encouragements and exhortations, to move, induce and persuade persons held to service in any of the United States by the laws thereof, who had escaped into the said district, as well as other persons, citizens of said district, to resist, oppose, and prevent, by violence and intimidation, the execution, of the said laws, and also containing therein instructions and directions how and upon what occasion, the traitorous purposes last aforesaid, should and might be carried into effect contrary to the form of the act of Congress in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the United States.

that he knows the Petitioner Edward Gorsuch, and lives within three quarters of a mile of his farm, that he knows the slaves named in the Petition, to wit, Noah Baley, Nelson Fra

Joshua Hammond, Eli Ford and Charles Ford - all of them were the slaves of John M. Gorsuch of Baltimore County, in his lifetime and were as he has understood devised by him to the Petitioner Edward Gorsuch who held the four first named as his slaves after the death of said John M. Gorsuch, the two last ran away before his death - The said Eli Ford and Charles Ford ran away from their said master John M. Gorsuch on the twelfth of May 1844, and have ever since been absent. The said Noah Baley, Nelson Ford, Hammond as deponent calls him but who is the same negro called George in the Petition & Joshua the same as is called Joshua Hammond in the said Petition, escaped and ran away from the said Edward Gorsuch, the Petitioner, in the fall of eighteen hundred and forty nine, and he believes in the month of November of that year, and none of them have ever returned or been reclaimed by their master, the said Edward Gorsuch who when they ran away resided and at this time resides in Baltimore County.

He further says, that Noah is now about twenty four years of age was quite a bright mulatto, about five feet nine or ten inches high and tolerably stout built - Nelson was a dark brown, nearly black, of twenty two years of age or there about, about five feet seven inches (perhaps a little under that height) quite round shouldered, talked fast and was rather timid, Hammond or George Hammond is now about twenty four years of age, black and he supposes about five feet eight or ten inches high, Joshua he supposes was from eighteen to twenty years old when he ran off - he was well grown and may have appeared older than he really was, he was of a

Eli was about nineteen years old when he ran away, and Charles about twenty one, - Eli was of a dark yellow color, about five feet four or five inches high, and had a nose broad and flat at the end - particularly broad and flat at the end, the broadness did not run up the nose, Charles was five feet three or four inches high, well set, with arms rather short, and had a peculiarity in his walk, he was black.
Edward Gorsuch is deponent's brother - John M. Gorsuch died in the summer of 1845.
