

PUBLIC MEETING

Portland Marriot Downtown Waterfront

Location: Salon A-D

- 5:00-5:10 p.m. Welcome and Opening Remarks –
 Rob Magnien – NOAA Center for Sponsored Coastal Ocean Research
- Overview of the West Coast Harmful Algal Bloom (HAB) problem
 - How the Summit results will help advance regional management capabilities to protect ocean health
- 5:10-5:40 p.m. Results from Workshop – plans for developing a:
- West Coast Regional HAB Monitoring, Alert, and Response Network: Goals, Users, and Management Needs
 Dan Ayers – Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife
 - West Coast Regional HAB Monitoring, Alert, and Response Network: System Requirements and Design
 Raphael Kudela – University of California, Santa Cruz
 - Developing a West Coast Regional Forecasting System: Research Needs and Management Applications
 Peter Strutton – Oregon State University
- 5:40-7:00 p.m. Public Q&A with Panelists
 Alan Lewitus (Panel Moderator) – NOAA
 Jessica Hamilton – Office of the Governor, Oregon
 Rob Magnien – NOAA
 Dan Ayers – Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife
 Raphael Kudela – University of California, Santa Cruz
 Peter Strutton – Oregon State University
- 7:00 p.m. Media Q&A