Re: Quantity and Value Questionnaire for Light-Walled Rectangular Pipe and Tube from the People's Republic of China

Dear Sir or Madam:

On July 17, 2007, the Department of Commerce (the Department) initiated an antidumping duty investigation to determine whether light-walled rectangular pipe and Tube (LWR) from the People's Republic of China (the PRC) is being sold in the United States at less than fair value. The period of investigation (POI) is October 1, 2006, through March 31, 2007.

In advance of the issuance of the antidumping questionnaire, we ask that you respond to the questions in Attachment I requesting information on the quantity and U.S. dollar sales value of all exports to the United States of LWR during the POI. A definition of the merchandise covered by the scope of this investigation is included in Attachment II. General instructions for responding to this letter are contained in Attachment III. Please be advised that receipt of this letter does not indicate that the recipient manufacturer or exporter will be chosen as a mandatory respondent or guaranteed separate rates status. A response to this letter may be subject to on-site verification by Department officials.

The response to the Department's Quantity and Value (Q&V) questionnaire in Attachment I must be received by the Department no later than August 8, 2007

Please note that all submissions to the Department must be served on all interested parties. The service instructions are included in Attachment III. The list of interested parties may be found at <http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>.

The Department requires non-market economy exporters of LWR to submit a separate-rate application no later than September 21, 2007<sup>1</sup> in addition to submitting a response to this Q&V questionnaire to receive consideration for a separate rate. The separate-rate application is available on the Department's website at

<sup>1</sup>Please note that this means that the Department must receive the separate rate application by September 21, 2007.

<http://ia.ita.doc.gov/ia-highlights-and-news.html>. In other words, the Department will not give consideration to any separate rate-status application made by parties that failed to respond to this questionnaire within the established deadline.

We appreciate your attention to these matters. Please contact Jeff Pedersen or Drew Jackson at 202-482-2769, or 202-482-4406, respectively, if you have any questions or comments.

Sincerely,

Howard Smith

Where it is not practicable to examine all known producers/exporters of subject merchandise, section 777A(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (as amended) permits us to investigate 1) a sample of exporters, producers, or types of products that is statistically valid based on the information available at the time of selection, or 2) exporters and producers accounting for the largest volume and value of the subject merchandise that can reasonably be examined.

In the chart below, please provide the total quantity and total value of all your sales of merchandise covered by the scope of this investigation (see attachment II of this document), produced in the PRC, and exported/shipped to the United States during the period October 1, 2006, through March 31, 2007.

Total Value:

- All sales values should be reported in U.S. dollars. Please indicate any exchange rates used and their respective dates and sources.

- Generally, a U.S. sale is classified as a constructed export price sale when the first sale to an unaffiliated person occurs after importation. - Further manufactured or assembly (including re-packing) sales refers to merchandise that undergoes further manufacture or assembly in the United States before being sold to the first unaffiliated customer.
- Further manufacture or assembly costs include amounts incurred for direct materials, labor and overhead, plus amounts for general and administrative expense, interest expense, and additional packing expense incurred in the country of further manufacture, as well as all costs involved in moving the product from the U.S. port of entry to the further manufacturer.

You may photocopy this form and submit a completed copy with each of your submissions.
6. The submission must be served on all other persons on the service list and accompanied by a proper certificate of service for this case in accordance with section 351.303(f)(1)-(2) of the Department's regulations, which states:

(1)(i) In General. Except as provided in § 351.202(c) (filing of petition), § 351.207(f)(1) (submission of proposed suspension agreement), and paragraph (f)(3) of this section, a person filing a document with the Department simultaneously must serve a copy of the document on all other persons on the service list by personal service or first class mail.

Start at "Active APOs and Service Lists." Begin your search with the product. Search alphabetically for "Light-Walled Rectangular Pipe and Tube." Once you click on "Light-Walled Rectangular Pipe and Tube," you will see the People's Republic of China (A-570-914). You should then click on People's Republic of China (A-570-914). There will be several options. Select "Investigation" to find the most up-to-date service list.

7. Request proprietary treatment for information submitted that you do not wish to be made publicly available. As a general rule, the Department places all correspondence and submissions received in the course of an antidumping proceeding in a public reading file. However, information deemed to be proprietary information will not be made available to the public. If you wish to make a request for proprietary treatment for particular information, refer to sections 351.304 and 351.304(a)(2) of the Department's regulations. Submit the request for proprietary treatment no later than one business day following the submission of the proprietary version of your response accompanied by:
  - (1) a non-proprietary (public) version of your response that is in sufficient detail to permit a reasonable understanding of the information submitted in confidence,<sup>1</sup> and/or
  - (2) an itemization of particular information that you believe you are unable to summarize. State the reasons why you cannot summarize each piece of information.

Responses, or portions thereof, that are not adequately summarized may be returned to you and not used.

8. Submit the statements required regarding limited release of proprietary information under the provisions of an administrative protective order (APO). U.S. law permits limited disclosure to representatives of parties (e.g., legal counsel) of certain business proprietary information, including electronic business proprietary information, under an APO. (Note that data received under an APO cannot be shared with others who are not covered by the APO.) Under the provisions governing APO disclosure, you must submit either:
  - (1) a statement agreeing to permit the release under APO of information submitted by you in confidence during the course of the proceeding, or

<sup>1</sup> Generally, numerical data are adequately summarized if grouped or presented in terms of indices or figures ranged within ten percent of the actual figure. If a particular portion of the data is voluminous, use ranged figures for at least one percent of the voluminous portion.

- (2) a statement itemizing those portions of the information which you believe should not be released under APO, together with arguments supporting your objections to that release.

We are required by our regulations to reject, at the time of filing, submissions of business proprietary information that do not contain one of these statements. You must state in the upper right-hand corner of the cover letter accompanying your response whether you agree or object to release of the submitted information under APO. (See section 351.303 of the Department's regulations.)<sup>2</sup>

9. Place brackets ( [... ] ) around information for which you request business proprietary treatment. Place double brackets ( [[... ]] ) around information for which you request proprietary treatment and which you do not agree to release under APO.
10. Provide to all parties whose representatives have been granted an APO (as identified on the Department's website at: <http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>) a complete copy of the submission, proprietary and public versions, except for that information which you do not agree to release under APO. If you exclude information because you do not agree to release it under APO, submit with your response to the Department a certificate of service and a copy of the APO version of the document containing the information that you agree may be released under APO. For parties that do not have access to information under APO, please provide a public version only.
11. Prepare your response in typed form and in English. Repeat the question to which you are responding in your narrative submission and place your answer directly below it.

<sup>2</sup> If you do not agree to release under APO all or part of the proprietary information, but we determine that the information should be released, you will have the opportunity to withdraw the information (see section 351.304(d) of our regulations). However, any information which you withdraw will be taken out of the official record and will not be used in our determination.
