

Repetitive motion cases resulted in the longest absences from work.

Repetitive motion cases resulted in the longest absences from work. Falls to a lower level, with 14 days, and transportation accidents, with 10 days, had the next-longest median days away from work.

The median number of days away from work for transportation accidents was 10 in 2004, compared with 14 in 2003.

Median days away from work due to nonfatal occupational injuries or illnesses, by event or exposure, 2004

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, November 2005