

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 28, 1972

Dear Mr. Premier -

I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the courtesies you extended to Dr Kissinger on his recent visit to Peking. He reported to me at great length on his talks with you and I was pleased to note that the candor and the constructive attitude which have characterized our discussions in the past are continuing at this time.

I trust we can continue to work together toward the goal of normalizing relations between our two countries.

She joins me in extending our warmest personal regards to Malan Chou and to you.

Sincerely
Richard Nixon
