Independence National Historical Park Is Calling All Artists

Independence National Historical Park is calling on all artists 17 years old and up (students, amateurs and professionals) to work in two- dimensional media (pen and ink, pastel, water color, oil, etc.) in the most historical gardens and on the most historical grounds in the United States of America during June, July and August between the hours of 9 am and 4 pm, Monday thru Friday. In doing so, you will be enrolled into the National Park Service volunteer corps as a volunteer artist, sharing your vision and talent with the many visitors you will encounter while you complete your works of art.

If you wish to have your art work displayed, the park will host an art exhibit on the lawn of the Independence Visitor Center on Saturday, September 29, 2007, in honor of National Public Lands Day. Details for that event to follow at a later date.

If you wish to participate, please sign up on Wednesday, June 6, 2007, or Saturday, June 9, 2007, between the hours of 9:00 am and 3:00 pm at the Independence Living History Center Lobby, 115 South 3rd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106 (on South 3rd Street between Chestnut and Walnut Streets).

For further information, please contact Independence National Historical Park's Volunteer Coordinator, Beverly Morris, at 215- 597- 1293.
