Fourth Annual POPS! On Independence

Independence National Historical Park, Independence Visitor Center Corporation, and Historic Philadelphia Incorporated are proud to announce the fourth annual POPS! On Independence Concert! Join us at 8:30 pm on Tuesday, July 3, 2007, as we celebrate Independence Day in front of Independence Hall. We invite all our visitors, neighbors and friends to join us on Independence Mall for this celebration.

The concert featuring two- time Grammy Award winner Peter Nero and the Philly Pops, along with The Voices of the POPS, is free and open to the public. The concert will also include God Bless America, sung by the winner of the Lights of Liberty's Teen Idol Search for the Greatest God Bless America. Seating will be available on a first- come, first- served basis on the grass near the Liberty Bell Center, across the street from Independence Hall; or bring a blanket and lie back and enjoy the great American music under the stars. Because of on- going work at the President's House site archeological dig, entrance into the seating area will be from Chestnut Street (at 6th and 5th Streets). After 8:00 pm, visitors will also be able to enter the square at 6th and Market Streets, just north of the Liberty Bell Center. Volunteers will be on hand to direct visitors to available entrances. Once on the block, our visitors will have plenty of room to sit back and enjoy the show!

This year promises to be another exciting and rousing program, so join us as we celebrate our nation's birthday at the birthplace of the nation, Independence National Historical Park!
