Whereabouts Unknown: Does the Department of the Interior Have Money in an Account for You?

You may have an Indian trust account you don't know about. The Department of the Interior has more than $65 million dollars in accounts to distribute to more than 48,000 people whose whereabouts are unknown. Many trust funds are held by people who moved and did not leave a forwarding address, or funds have been inherited through a probate. To find out if you have an account talk to your Fiduciary Trust Officer, contact your local agency, or call the Trust Beneficiary Call Center toll-free at (888) 678-6836. On the web, go to www.doi.gov/ost and click on "Locating IIM Account Holders."
