1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) requires that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a) requires the Department to publish in the Federal Register this notice of an altered system of records maintained by the Department. The Department's regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) in 34 CFR part 5b.

The Privacy Act applies to information about an individual that contains individually identifiable information that is retrieved by a unique identifier associated with the individual, such as a name or social security number. The information about the individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-based, is called a "system of records."

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish a notice of new or altered systems of records in the Federal Register. Each agency also must submit reports to the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the Chair of the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, and the Chair of the House Committee on Government Reform, whenever the agency publishes a new system of records or makes a significant change to an established system of records. Minor changes to an established system of records, such as the amendments to the ED PUBS system of records, do not require an agency to prepare a report.

Michell Clark,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Management and Chief Information Officer.

For the reasons discussed in the preamble, the Acting Assistant Secretary for Management of the Department publishes a notice of an altered system of records. The following amendments are made to the Notice of New and Altered Systems of Records and Corrections published in the Federal Register on December 27, 1999 (64 FR 72384-72408):

1. On page 72404, first column, the numbering, "18-13-05," is revised to read as follows: 18-05-18.

2. On page 72404, first column, under the heading "SYSTEM LOCATION," the paragraph is revised to read as follows: Aspen Systems Corporation, 2277 Research Boulevard, Rockville, MD 20850.

3. On page 72405, first column, under the heading, "(6) Labor Organization Disclosure," the paragraph is revised to read as follows:

The Department may disclose records from this system of records to an arbitrator to resolve disputes under a negotiated grievance procedure or to officials of labor organizations recognized under 5 U.S.C. chapter 71 when relevant and necessary to their duties of exclusive representation.

4. On page 72405, second column, "STORAGE;" "RETRIEVABILITY;" and "SAFEGUARDS;" are revised to read as follows:

Storage

The records are retained in a computer database.

Retrievability

The records are retrieved by customer type (this is a categorical description of the customer such as school administrator, parent, teacher K-12, etc.), order date, the title of the requested product, and the region of the country from which the order was placed.

Safeguards

Records in the system will be maintained in a secure password-protected electronic system that will utilize security hardware and software to include: firewalls to block external access to the system, the required use of a unique user ID with personal identifiers, and the recording of all interactions with the system. A maximum of one trusted individual with a Department of Justice Civil Clearance has system logon access. This clearance is based on a National Agency Checks with Written Inquiries and Credit (NACIC) review, equivalent to the Department's moderate risk 5C clearance process. All physical access to the site of the Department's contractor, where this system of records is maintained, is controlled and monitored by security personnel who check each individual entering the building for his or her employee or visitor badge. The ED PUBS system has been granted Certification and Full Accreditation in accordance with the Department's Certification and Accreditation Program, and applicable Federal laws and policies.

5. On page 72405, second column, under the heading, "SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS;" the paragraph is revised to read as follows:
