

Facility Name: Lerdo Detention Center Facility

Date of Tour: July 22, 2004

Tour participants:

(b)(6)

(Latham & Watkins)

ICE Standard	Tour Observation	Source	ICE Response
Telephone Access <ul style="list-style-type: none"> III.K “If telephone calls are monitored...[the facility] shall place a notice at each monitored telephone stating that calls are subject to monitoring and [stating] the procedure for obtaining an unmonitored call” 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The delegation observed that all calls, including legal calls, are recorded by the facility (p15, line 4) Neither detainees nor attorneys are aware of how to request unmonitored calls 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Facility Personnel stated that detainees can request that a legal call not be monitored and that attorneys may ask to be put on a list where their telephone numbers are blocked from recording. 	Not noted in 2004 review.
Legal Materials <ul style="list-style-type: none"> III.Q “These policies and procedures shall be posted in the law library along with a list of the law library’s holdings.” And III. C “The facility shall post a list of its holding in the law library” III.C “The law library shall contain the materials listed in attachment A” 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The delegation did not observe any posted list of holdings in the law library (p18, line 2) The library does not include the Florence Project’s “You’re your Rights” packets (p18, line 4) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Delegation observations and conv th Sergeant (b)(6), (b)(7)c According to sta made by Officer (b)(6), (b)(7)c who stated that constraints were the cause 	The 2004 report indicates that all materials are not present in the Law Library.